THE GEORGIANS

One of the innovations that has taken place in hockey during the past few years, has been the implementation of the plus-minus system.

The system is quite useful for coaches and players alike for evaluating offensive and defensive performances alike and gives a pretty good idea of a players over-all capabilities.

The plus-minus average takes into consideration goals for and against a player while he was on the ice with the teams playing at equal strength.

A glance at the Georgians' plus-minus average shows that rookie right winger Mark Shewchuck lead the team with a +18. Coincidentally, Shewchuck is also leading the club in scoring after 23 games with 24 goals and 17 assists for 41 points.

The second-best average on the team belong to perhaps the best defensive forward on the Georgians, left winger Phil Turner.

Turner, Shewchuck's wingmate for most of this season, has a +17 mark.

Georgian defenceman Mike McNamara holds the third highest mark with a +13 followed by John Murray with a +11 and rookie rear guard George Tower with a +10.

Over-all, the Georgians are +83 on the season which has seen them score 114 goals and allow 89 in 23 league and exhibition games.

Trailing Shewchuck in the team's scoring race is veteran John Murray who has 13 goals and 18 assists for 31 points.

McNamara is third with 29 points on seven goals and 22 assists while Bill Hatten is next with 5 goals and 23 assists for 28 points.

Bory McKay (7-20-27), Barry Cullen (13-13-26) and Phil Turner (9-13-22) round out the top Sir George point-getters.

All of these statistics are as of January 31.

The Georgians travelled to Trois-Rivieres Tuesday night to play the University of Quebec-Trois-Rivieres Patriotes, the first game for coach Paul Arsenault's squad since suffering an 8-1 loss to University of Sherbrooke Vert et Or January 22.

Going into this weeks action, the Georgians were tied for second with Sherbrooke with 18 points, four less than front-running Loyola College Warriors.

The Georgians face the Warriors next Wednesday, February 9 at the Loyola Arena and two nights later, they play Sherbrooke at the McGill rink.

CURLING

Coach Dave Ramsay's curling team won the Montreal West Bonspiel last weekend following a week of outstanding curling.

In the final match Saturday, the Sir George rink, skipped by John Hammond, defeated Garth Ruiter's rink of Lachine, 13-5.

But to advance past the first round, the Georgians were forced to play against the Bill Kent rink, which has represented Quebec in the Canadian Brier. And they surprised everyone by scoring the victory.

The next outing for the curlers will be the Quebec University Athletic Association championships in Trois-Rivieres, February 12.

WOMEN'S HOCKEY

The Georgettes, Sir George's initial girls' hockey team, swing into action this week at the McGill Arena.

Wednesday afternoon, they play the Loyola Tommies at high noon. Then on Friday, coach Bill Hattem's girls will travel out to Ste. Anne de Bellevue to play in the Macdonald College tournament.

The Georgettes have a return match against Loyola scheduled for February 14 and are set to play a team from Boston February 23 at McGill Arena. The girls will close out their schedule March 11 when they take part in the McGill tournament at the McGill Arena.

FOOTBALL

There will be a new head football coach at Sir George next year following the resignation last week of Brian Hayes. Hayes had been head coach at Sir George since 1970, taking over from Phil Chiarellea.

In his first year as head coach, the Georgians would up in a tie for second place in the Central Canada Intercollegiate Football Conference with a 4-2 won-lost mark. Last season, the Georgians were fourth in the Quebec University Athletic Association Blue Division, finishing with a 2-4 won-lost record.

Sir George Athletic Director Paul Arsenault has indicated that a new football coach will have other responsibilities, possibly in the intramural program.

Hayes' assistants last year will not be retained by the department and one of them, Charlie Baillie, has been selected as head coach of the McGill Redmen.

BASKETBALL

The Georgians basketball team won two games this weekend, but lost a third which will hinder their fight for the Q.U.A.A. title. They defeated Bishop's 89-82 while losing to Laval 88-74 in league games, while defeating Queens 88-85 in an exhibition game.

On Friday night the Georgians defeated the Bishop's Gaiters for third time this year. Sir George jumped out to an early 15 points lead in the first half, increased it to 20 in the second half and then staved off a last minute rally to register its ninth league victory. The Georgians' stingy defense shut off Ian Smith and Gus Haig, Bishop's top scorers, and Tom Brethel led the offense with his shooting and passing. Sir George led 18-3 after the first five minutes and at half time held a 50-32 advantage. Terry O'Brien and Peter Hargrove each had ten points and did an excellent job clearing both the offensive and defensive boards.

Sir George continued to roll in the second half and increased its lead to 23 points before Bishop's started to rally behind Haig and Smith. The Georgians defense seemed to relay and the Gaiter's took advantage as it pulled to within 7 points with four minutes remaining in the game. But baskets by Hargrove and Mike Hickey and two foul shots by Brethel iced the victory for Sir George.

Brethel led all scorers with 27 points while Hickey added 25 and O'Brien and Hargrove collected 16 and 14 respectfully. Smith scored 20 for Bishop's while Haig scored 16 and Dave Simpson had 15.

On Saturday night the Georgians faced one of their strongest opponents of the 71-72 campaign. It looked as if it would be a long night for Sir George as Queen's jumped off to a 15-3 lead behind its tough man-to-man defense. However, Tom Brethel's passing and shooting brought the Georgians back in the game and they held a 2 point lead at half-time. In the second half the Georgians tightened its zone defense and received outstanding performance from Gary Stephens and Art McQuade. Stephens hit for 11 points while McQuade scored 15, many of them in the closing minutes of the game. Brethel led all scorers with 37 points while McQuade and Hickey added 15 and 13 respectfully. Marc Goodman led Queen's with 19 points.

On Sunday Sir George fell victim to the hot outside shooting of Laval Rouge et Or. Laval jumped off to a quick 10 point lead and maintained it throughout the first half. Tom Maryeski, Pierre Laurin and Pierre Dion constantly hit for Laval from the outside. In the second half, Laval completely stopped Georgian ace Tom Brethel holding him to 2 points. Brethel finished the game with 13 points while Mike Hickey hit for 27 and Peter Hargrove scored 10.

VOLLEYBALL (Women's)

This last weekend has seen the final league tournament for this season that the women's volleyball team will play in. It was the best set of games played as a team this year. Universite de Quebec-Montreal beat our team in the first set and the next game against McGill was a hard fought battle. They won 15-13 and 15-11. By this time we felt we were playing as a team and weren't too disappointed when Universite de Montreal beat us 15-8. Montreal is the second best team in the league but Sir George can proudly say the score was 8-6 in our favour at one point. The last team met was Macdonald College and the last games score was 15-9 for Sir George. The four teams out of 8 going to the finals are Universite de Montreal, Laval, Universite de Quebec-Montreal and Sherbrooke.

The women's basketball and volleyball teams travelled to Loyola last Tuesday to compete against our age old rivals and returned with one victory and one loss. The volleyball team beat Loyola's Tommies 15-3, 15-6, 15-8 and the basketball team lost by 2 points in a truly exciting game. Sir George was down by 12 points at the half and came back fighting right till the last second just not being able to sink that important basket.
